

DETERMINATION OF THE VALUE OF CLOTHES

Category A

Like new, almost unused. The garment is either unused or slightly used, but in very good condition. The garment has no wear anywhere and all the details, such as reflectors and snaps, are like new.

Category B

Garment that was in normal use. The garment is fully usable, but it shows traces of use. In this category, we accept clothes that are used, but still in good condition. Clothes that are 5 years old or older always belong to the B or C category.

Category C

Only applies to outerwear. Very worn clothes. Fully usable, but there are wears and defects.
